AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th of February, 1781,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS, upon the Commencement of Hoſtilities againſt the States General of the United Provinces, His Majeſty thought fit, by His Order in Council of the 22d of December laſt, to declare His Royal Intention to allow all Ships belonging to the Subjects of the States General, then in any of His Majeſty's Ports, to depart with their Cargoes, (except ſuch Part thereof as ſhall conſiſt of Salted Proviſions of any Kind, or of Naval or Warlike Stores) and to grant Paſſes for the ſaid Ships and Cargoes, except as before excepted, to protect them from Capture by any Ships of His Majeſty, or His Subjects, in their Return to ſome Port of the United Provinces: But inaſmuch as His Majeſty was intitled to expect and demand the ſame Treatment from the States General of the United Provinces, for the Ships and Cargoes belonging to any of His Majeſty's Subjects, His Majeſty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, was pleaſed to order, and it was thereby ordered, that all Ships and Merchandize belonging to the States General of the United Provinces, or their Subjects, then in any Port of His Majeſty's Dominions, ſhould remain and be detained ſecure and unmoleſted within the ſame, until it ſhould appear that the States General of the United Provinces were diſpoſed and intended to proceed upon the ſame Ideas of good Faith with reſpect to the Ships and Cargoes of any of His Majeſty's Subjects remaining in any Port belonging to the States General of the United Provinces. And whereas His Majeſty's has received certain Advice, that the States General of the United Provinces have declared and concluded, by their Placart dated at the Hague the 26th of January laſt, that, as ſoon as the Dutch Ships ſhall be permitted to depart from England, the Engliſh Ships ſhall be no longer detained in their Ports, but immediately be permitted to depart, and be provided with Paſſports as therein mentioned; His Majeſty, taking the ſame into His Royal Conſideration, hath therefore ordered, as it is hereby ordered in Council, That all Ships and Veſſels belonging to the Subjects of the States General of the United Provinces, together with the Perſons and Cargoes on Board them, (other than and except Salted Proviſions of any Kind, or Naval or Warlike Stores) which are now detained, by Virtue of the aforementioned Order in Council of the 22d of December laſt, in the Ports of Great Britain, Ireland, or other Ports of His Majeſty's Dominions, or which had been ſeized and brought into any of the ſaid Ports by any of the Ships of His Majeſty or His Subjects, before the Order for General Reprizals againſt the States was iſſued, and have been already declared, or ſhall hereafter be declared, by Sentence of the Court of Admiralty, to be the Property of Subjects of the States General, be forthwith, or as ſoon as ſuch Sentence of the Court of Admiralty hath been pronounced, releaſed and diſcharged, with free Liberty to return to their reſpective Ports, and that proper Paſſes be granted them for that Purpoſe. And His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief, or other proper Officers, at the ſaid ſeveral Ports of His Majeſty's Dominions, are to take Notice of His Majeſty's Pleaſure hereby ſignified, and to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS upon Information received that the Plague had manifeſted itſelf in many Places of the Ukraine and Wolhynia, His Majeſty was pleaſed, by His Order in Council of the 15th of December laſt, to direct, that all Ships then arrived or that ſhould thereafter arrive from Dantzick, or any other Port or Place in Royal or Ducal Pruſſia or Pomerania, or from any Port or Place in Courland, Samogitia, or Livonia, ſhould make their Quarantine for Forty Days: And whereas there was this Day read at the Board ſeveral Advices that have been lately received from His Majeſty's Conſul at Dantzick, whereby it appears, that the Phyſicians and Surgeons employed in examining into the real Nature of the Diſtemper have declared, that the ſame was no ways the Plague, as it had been repreſented, but a Malignant Fever, eaſily cured by proper Medicines; and it having been further repreſented, that in conſequence of proper Meaſures taken, the ſaid Calamity hath now entirely ſubſided:—His Majeſty taking the ſame into Conſideration, and being deſirous to remove all Reſtraints upon Trade, ſo far as may be conſiſtent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleaſed, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine at preſent ſubſiſting upon Ships and Veſſels coming from Dantzick, or any other Port or Place in Royal or Ducal Pruſſia or Pomerania, or from any Port or Place in Courland, Samogitia, or Livonia, be taken off; and that all Ships and Veſſels already arrived, or that may hereafter arrive from thoſe Places, be permitted to diſcharge their reſpective Ladings, without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine; provided they ſhall have no Goods or Merchandize on Board the Produce of Turkey, or the Levant, which may ſubject them to the Rules of Quarantine, under the Directions contained in His Majeſty's Order in Council ell, bearing Date the 20th of September laſt; that they bring with them clean Bills of Health; and that the Maſter or other Perſon taking Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel do firſt make Oath before the Cuſtom-houſe Officer or Chief Magiſtrate, on their Arrival at the Place where they are bound to, that the Crews are free from all Infection. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, His Majeſty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Whitehall, February 17, 1781.

BY the Antelope Packet, which ſailed from Charles Town the 18th of January, Diſpatches have been received from the Earl Cornwallis, Major-General Leſlie, and Lieutenant-Colonel Balfour, of which the following are Extracts and Copy.

Extract of a Letter from the Earl Cornwallis to Lord George Germain, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated Wynneſborough, December 18, 1780.

AS your Lordſhip will doubtleſs be glad to hear, by every ſafe Opportunity, the State of Affairs in the Southern Diſtrict, I have the Honor of tranſmitting to you Copy of my Letter to the Commander in Chief on the 3d of this Month. As this Letter explains fully our paſt Operations, and preſent Situation, I have only to add, that Major-General Leſlie is ſafely arrived, with his whole Fleet, at Charles Town.

Extract of a Letter from the Earl Cornwallis to Sir Henry Clinton, dated Camp, at Wynneſborough, December 3, 1780.

I HAD the Honor to inform your Excellency, that Major Ferguſon had taken infinite Pains with ſome of the Militia of Ninety-ſix. He obtained my Permiſſion to make an Incurſion into Tryon County, whilſt the Sickneſs of my Army prevented my moving. As he had only Militia and the ſmall Remains of his own Corps, without Baggage or Artillery, and as he promiſed to come back if he heard of any ſuperior Force, I thought he could do no Harm, and might help to keep alive the Spirits of our Friends in North Carolina, which might be damped by the Slowneſs of our Motions: The Event proved unfortunate without any Fault of Major Ferguſon's. A numerous and unexpected Enemy came from the Mountains; as they had good Horſes their Movements were rapid: Major Ferguſon was tempted to ſtay near the Mountains longer than he intended, in Hopes of cutting off Colonel Clarke on his Return from Georgia. He was not aware that the Enemy was ſo near him; and in endeavouring to execute my Orders of paſſing the Catawba, and joining me at Charlotte Town, he was attacked by a very ſuperior Force, and totally defeated on King's Mountain.

Wynneſborough, my preſent Poſition, is an healthy Spot, well ſituated to protect the greateſt Part of the Northern Frontier, and to aſſiſt Camden and Ninety-ſix.

Sumpter having paſſed the Broad River, and joined Branan, Clarke, &c. I detached Major M'Arthur with the 1ſt Battalion of the 71ſt, and the 63d Regiment, after having ſent my Aid de Camp, Lieutenant Money, to take the Command of it, to Brierly's Ferry on Broad River, in order to cover our Mills, and to give ſome Check to the Enemy's March to Ninety-ſix. At the ſame Time I recalled Lieutenant-Colonel Tarleton from the Low Country. Tarleton was ſo fortunate as to paſs not only the Wateree, but the Broad River, without General Sumpter's being apprized of it, who having increaſed his Corps to One Thouſand, had paſſed the Ennoree, and was on the Point of attacking our Hundred Militia at Williams's Houſe, Fifteen Miles from Ninety-ſix, and where I believe he would not have met with much Reſiſtance. Lieutenant-Colonel Tarleton would have ſurpriſed him on the South of Ennoree, had not a Deſerter of the 63d given Notice of his March: He however cut to Pieces his Rear Guard in paſſing that River, and purſued his Main Body with ſuch Rapidity, that he could not ſafely paſs the Tyger, and was obliged to halt on a very ſtrong Poſition, at a Place called Black Stocks, cloſe to it. Tarleton had with him only his Cavalry, and the 63d mounted, his Infantry and a Three-pounder being ſeveral Miles behind. The Enemy not being able to retreat with Safety, and being informed of Tarleton's Approach and Want of Infantry by a Woman who paſſed him on the March, and contrived by a nearer Road to get to them, were encouraged by their great Superiority of Numbers, and began to fire on the 63d, who were diſmounted. Lieutenant-Colonel Tarleton, to ſave them from conſiderable Loſs, was obliged to attack, although at ſome Hazard, and drove the Enemy with Loſs over the River: Sumpter was dangerouſly wounded, Three of their Colonels killed, and about 120 Men killed, wounded, or taken. On our Side about 50 were killed and wounded. Lieutenants Gibſon and Cope of the 63d were amongſt the former, and my Aid de Camp Lieutenant Money, who was a moſt promiſing Officer, died of his Wounds a few Days after. Lieutenant-Colonel Tarleton, as ſoon as he had taken Care of his Wounded, purſued and diſperſed the remaining Part of Sumpter's Corps; and then, having aſſembled ſome Militia under Mr. Cunningham, whom I appointed Brigadier-General of the Militia of that Diſtrict, and who has by far the greateſt Influence in that Country, he returned to the Broad River, where he at preſent remains; as well as Major M'Arthur in the Neighbourhood of Brierley's Ferry.

It is not eaſy for Lieutenant-Colonel Tarleton to add to the Reputation he has acquired in this Province; but the defeating 1000 Men, poſted on very ſtrong Ground, and occupying Log Houſes, with 190 Cavalry and 80 Infantry, is a Proof of that Spirit and thoſe Talents, which muſt render the moſt eſſential Services to his Country. Lieutenant Colonel Tarleton commends much the good Behaviour of the Officers and Men under his Command; and he particularly mentions Lieutenant Skinner, of the 16th Regiment of Infantry, who does Duty with the Legion, as having diſtinguiſhed himſelf.

Extract of a Letter from Major-General Leſlie to Lord George Germain, dated Charles Town, December 19, 1780.

I Did myſelf the Honor of writing to your Lordſhip, at Sea, on Board His Majeſty's Ship the Romulus, the 27th Ult. From hard Gales, and contrary Winds, we did not get here before the 13th Inſtant. The Troops are all arrived in great Health: We met with no Loſs except our Horſes. Commodore Gayton paid the greateſt Attention in keeping his Fleet together, and diſpoſing of his Light Armed Veſſels for the Protection of the Tranſports. I found Orders here to march up the Country, with about 1530 Men, to join Lord Cornwallis as ſoon as poſſible: The Want of Horſes and Waggons prevented me proceeding on my March until this Day.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Balfour, Commandant at Charles Town, to Lord George Germain, dated Charles Town, January 16, 1781.

MY LORD,

I Am honored with Lord Cornwallis's Directions to addreſs myſelf to your Lordſhip during his Abſence from this Province, and to have the Honor of informing your Lordſhip, from Time to Time, of the State of the Army, and the Situation of Affairs here.

By the laſt Diſpatches from Lord Cornwallis, which were dated the 11th Inſtant, the Army was then in Motion, and advancing towards North Carolina, ſo that his Lordſhip would reach Bullock Creek, between the Catawbaw and Broad Rivers, by the 16th; to which I am happy to add, that the Troops under his Command were, at that Time, in the higheſt Health.

The lateſt Accounts of the Enemy inform us, that General Green, with his Army, is at Hayly's Ferry, on the Eaſtern Banks of the Pedee.

In order to co-operate with Lord Cornwallis's Views on Cape Fear River, and to afford Proviſions and other Supplies for his Army, a ſmall Force of about 300 Men, under Major Craig of the 82d Regiment, will ſail from hence with the Packet. Captain Barkley in the Blonde, with the Delight and Otter Sloops of War, convoy this Corps, and will co-operate with the Troops on this Expedition, which, I truſt, will be ſucceſsful, and give us Poſſeſſion of Willmington, and of this very eſſential Communication.

It is with Pleaſure I inform your Lordſhip, that many of the principal Inhabitants of the Province, and ſome who held the chief Offices under the late Rebel Powers, have reverted to their Loyalty, and declared their Allegiance to His Majeſty's Government.

I have alſo the Satisfaction to acquaint your Lordſhip, that Major Roſs and Captain Broderick are arrived with the Diſpatches; and as the former Gentleman has mentioned to me your Lordſhip's great Anxiety to receive frequent Informations from hence, and as there has of late been no eligible Conveyance, I have, from theſe Motives, taken upon me to change the Courſe of the Packet, by ſending her directly Home; to which I have been the rather induced, as a Ship of War ſhortly is to ſail for New-York, and will take with her the Commander in Chief's Diſpatches, and the Mail for that Place.

Captain Mallom, of the 63d Regiment, an Officer of Merit, and who is returning to Europe for the Recovery of his Health, has Lord Cornwallis's Directions to deliver this Diſpatch to your Lordſhip.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

H. BALFOUR.
